GALENA AVE. IMPROVEMENT IS DISCUSSED

Widening and Resurfacing May be Part of Summer Program

The possibility of widening and improving Galena avenue from Second to River streets will in all probability be held up until the completion of improvement plans now under way on Peoria avenue, Mayor Frank D. Palmer indicated during an interesting discussion at the regular meeting of the city council last evening. Members of the council favoring taking steps this winter to bring about the widening of Galena avenue, a long and much discussed improvement, together with the resurfacing of the brick paving with an asphaltic covering substance. Three members of the council urged taking immediate action and starting the improvement, that work might be started early next spring.

Mayor Palmer favored delaying action on the proposed improvement of Galena avenue at this time, informing the council members that he was in favor of completing the work now under way before starting any new projects, which statement closed the discussion. Commissioner George Campbell had made a verbal motion in which he sought to have the board of local improvements start work on the Galena avenue improvement as soon as possible.

The mayor's position will probably mean that the proposed widening and improving of Galena avenue in the business district will not be undertaken until probably early next summer.

Ready By July.

It was indicated today by an official closely in touch with the new Peoria avenue bridge construction, that in all probability it would be about the first of July before the structure would be thrown open to general traffic. He stated that at that time the paving would in all probability be completed at both ends of the bridge and that all work would be finished. It was expected, however, that foot passengers and light traffic might use the new bridge before that time and while the fills at both ends were in the process of settling. The fills will probably be started within the next few weeks it was intimated.

Members of the council unanimously favored a 54 foot paving from the south approach to the new bridge to commercial alley, which would provide an eight foot sidewalk space on both sides of the street. It is expected that the city commission will consider final plans for this improvement at their meeting next week. The city officials were to meet today and inspect the site with a view of ascertaining the exact width of paving at this point.

Applications were read to the council for permits to erect signs from Ralph Sarver, 111 Hennepin Avenue and Miss Fern Fluke, 123 First street, which were referred to the commissioner of public health and safety with power to act.

DIXON CLOSING WITH STERLING THANKSGIVING

Final Game Of Football Season Between Schools at North Side Field

Dixon and Sterling football teams will wind up their 1929 season today with the annual game between the two rival schools. It will not only be the last game of the season but many of the members of both teams will don the mole skins for the last time in high school gridiron circles.

Coach Lindell's squad is out to win their last game and from all reports, Sterling is going to be a strong contender for the same honors. The original plans for the Turkey day games called for the appearance of the heavyweight teams in Dixon and the second crews performing in Sterling, this providing holiday entertainment in both cities. The game between the lightweights was called off last week and the second string men will view tomorrow's game from the sidelines. The tilt between the heavyweight teams will be the only attraction locally.

In preparation for a victory tomorrow, a monster "pop" meeting has been arranged for this evening in the auditorium of the south side high school. Several business men will be in attendance and address the students and team members. Talks will also be given by the coaches and members of the faculty. The meeting will start promptly at 7:30, and it is expected that the auditorium will be crowded to its capacity, for this will in all probability be the last such gathering to take place in the south side building.

Coach Lindell, this morning announced the line-up of the purple and white squad who will take the field tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock for the final game of the season against Sterling.

Thomas Kane and H. B. Prescott, both of Chicago purchased the stock and fixtures and the former will continue its operation. The store will be reopened for business Dec. 5th. Mr. and Mrs. Burlingame came to Polo from Mendota four years ago when they embarked in business and have been very successful. The ill health of Mr. Burlingame made necessary his retirement from business. Mr. and Mrs. Burlingame will continue to make Polo their home.

BRIBES STOP CIVIL WAR IN CHINA, REPORT

Sudden Cessation of Factional Warfare Comes as Surprise

By The Associated Press
Abrupt cessation of hostilities on China's civil war fronts on Honan and Hupeh provinces was disclosed today in a series of dispatches, some of which hinted that the war-harassed Nationalist government had paid its enemies for the truce.

Advices from Hankow said fighting between the rebellious Kuomintang, or "People's Army," and Nationalist troops had stopped with a suddenness that took all observers by surprise, although it had been known that negotiations were going on between the factional leaders.

Chiang Kai-Shek, president of the Nationalist government and head of its military forces, returned today to Nanking with a purported program of "sweeping changes" which is expected to give his late enemies, the Kuomintang, a measure of recognition.

Simultaneously the "People's Army" was reported to be evacuating both Honan and Hupeh. Nationalist troops which had been fighting the Kuomintang were said to be withdrawing also, many of them heading for Kwangtung province to resist another revolutionary movement aimed against Canton.

Japanese dispatches to Shanghai from Hankow, quoting sources usually well informed asserted reports had been widely circulated that the Nationalists had bribed the Kuomintang to cease fighting.

With the cessation of fighting in central China the principal theater of internal warfare now is Kwangtung province, where the disaffected "Ironside division" which recently withdrew from the Nationalist army, and a force of rebels from Kwangsi province are advancing toward Canton. Recent dispatches said negotiations for a settlement of this trouble also were proceeding. Nanking adjectives last night said, however, that Chiang planned to send more troops southward to oppose the rebels.

A dispatch from Harbin to the Kuomintang news agency, organ of the Nationalist government, said the situation at Khabarovsk, western Manchuria, remained obscure because of interrupted communication since Sunday.

It was believed, however, that the Chinese defensive forces continued to hold Khabarovsk, although the civilians had evacuated the city. The message said Soviet troops subjected the city to a terrific bombardment Sunday night, inflicting heavy losses in life and property.

TOKIO NOT ALARMED

Tokyo, Nov. 27.—(AP)—The views of Secretary of State Stimson on the Manchurian situation were communicated to Tokyo today by Ambassador Debutch, following his conversation with the American secretary last Monday, but the foreign office disclaimed any intention of taking action at the present time, either independently or in concert with other nations.

Secretary Stimson was quoted as saying that he regarded the renewed warlike activity between the Russians and Chinese as serious, and in the event suggestions by the United States might be thought of value in clearing the situation, they would be made.

Tokyo's equanimity regarding the situation was expressed as due partly to confirmation of reports that the Russian invasion had not reached Khabarovsk and had made little progress if any, during the last two days, and also to official confidence that the Russians do not intend a permanent occupation of Chinese territory nor to seize Harbin.

Nevertheless, an official Russian communication, broadcast today from Khabarovsk, Siberia, declared that "further punitive measures" might be "necessary."

C. E. Keyes Has Narrow Escape

Charles E. Keyes of this city narrowly escaped being badly injured in an avoidable accident yesterday, while returning to Dixon from Rockford. Mr. Keyes was alone and was driving south on the route 2 highway. At the crossing of Mud creek north of Oregon, the Dodge sedan he was driving crashed into the side of the bridge and practically tore one side off the machine. Mr. Keyes was considerably shaken up but suffered no serious injury. The wrecked machine was hauled to a Dixon garage.

EDITORIAL

THE DIXON BANKS

Thanksgiving will be something besides Thursday, November 28th, to a great many Dixon people who will read tonight in another column of The Telegraph that Dixon's two strong banking institutions, the City National and the Dixon Trust and Savings Bank, recently closed by the state auditor, and guarantee the depositors of the closed bank their payment in full. The public spirited action of the rescuing bankers brings immediate relief to the depositors of the closed bank and lifts and dispels a cloud of gloom that had darkened business prospects in this community. It releases more than $300,000 in cash owned by the depositors in the closed bank, more or less of which would undoubtedly have been lost to them had the affairs of their bank been forced to go through court proceedings. Another result of the unselfish action of the two helping banks is a concrete and very practical reminder to the public of the strength and integrity and value to the community of Dixon's sound and powerful banking institutions.

The passing of the Dixon Trust and Savings Bank is simply a movement in harmony with the trend of modern times which is toward fewer and stronger banks. The resources of a community spread out among too many banks can only result in the diminishing of the efficiency and strength of such resources, just as the consolidation of a community's financial resources gives added strength. The result of the recent financial difficulties in Dixon, though greatly deplored because of the loss to the owners of the stock in the closed bank, will result in added strength to Dixon's financial resources and banking institutions.

Inasmuch as the affairs of the closed bank faced costly liquidation in the courts and the deposits were certain to be tied up for a long period, the action of the Dixon National and the City National, together with the cooperation of the officials and individuals who made the action possible, can only be regarded as the happiest kind of a solution from a serious predicament for this community and the general public, as well as those individuals most directly benefited, will certainly feel gratitude toward those men and institutions who have accomplished such splendid results.

LIQUOR RING DROPPED INTO U. S. PROHIBITION TRAP

Long Campaign Results Successfully in Securing Much Evidence

Chicago, Nov. 27.—(AP)—Federal indictment of Paul Morton revealed today that the government finally had decided to snap the trap baited months ago for leaders of an elaborate and extensive liquor syndicate. There were intimations, too, that in the indictment of Morton and 14 others the government had scraped close to the background of the Moran gang massacre of last Valentine's day and also had touched the web of law violation uncovered in the recent North Indiana liquor investigations.

The indictment of Morton, brother of the late "Nails" Morton, who was one of the few Chicago gangsters to die a natural death, was returned several weeks ago, but was kept secret, with the others, until yesterday.

Was Long Task
The arrests brought disclosures of patient work by government dry agents working under Alexander G. Jamie, chief deputy of a special prohibition unit. For months, two of Jamie's undercover agents accompanied truckload after truckload of Canadian ale into the Chicago area, driving the trucks at times and always accepted as members of the alleged syndicate.

This detective work was capped last August 22 in the raid led by George "Hardboiled" Golding, dry agent, in the City Hall Square building. The offices of the Morton Construction Company, said by government agents to be a guise for Morton's Chicago business headquarters, were stormed and Merle Adams, an insurance broker, was shot and slugged by two of Golding's raiders.

Freight Engine Struck Car Steel

Northwestern freight locomotive, No. 2334 was almost overturned in the south yards at Nelson late last night when it sideswiped a steel gondola, which had been switched on a side track, and was loaded with heavy steel. The big locomotive was backing into the yards when the tender struck the heavily loaded steel car and was lifted from the rails. The engine crew were uninjured but the locomotive and gondola were both damaged.

RELIEF PROGRAM GREATEST IN U. S. HISTORY

Utilities Interest Pledge Over Billion in Improvements Today

BULLETIN.
Washington, Nov. 27.—(UP)—A program calling for expenditure of $1,400,000,000 in new construction by the public utility industry was laid before President Hoover today by a group of utility operators.

BY RAYMOND CLAPPER.
United Press Staff Correspondent.
Washington, Nov. 27.—(UP)—Heads of the nation's great utilities representing billions of dollars in street railways, gas and electric power plants conferred with President Hoover today to lay before him their program for assisting in the general stimulation of business activity in the coming year.

Utilities are expected to spend nearly $2,000,000,000 in new street cars and tracks, and gas and electric plant extensions, providing construction and machinery work in dozens of localities which will give employment to thousands.

That gigantic program will supplement the billions in expenditures planned for railroads, highways, public buildings, and shipbuilding as outlined in the series of conferences which President Hoover has held. It practically completes the President's share in aiding business to gain momentum. The federal government is assisting in addition by pushing down interest rates on both industrial and agricultural working capital.

BY RICHARD L. GRIDLEY.

United Press Financial Writer.
New York, Nov. 27.—(UP)—Construction and improvement programs in the United States during the coming year will aggregate more than $9,000,000,000, divided among industrial, public utility, railroad and state and municipal programs, according to a survey by the United Press.

These figures, compiled from various statements of state governors, industrial leaders and railroad executives after President Hoover's series of business and economic conferences, show the nation is facing the greatest building program in its history in 1930.

Next year's construction program is estimated as follows: Industrial corporations, $3,500,000,000; public utility $2,000,000,000; state and municipal, $1,921,800,000; railroad, $1,250,000,000 and federal government, $750,000,000. Total $24,221,800,000.

In addition to the programs already announced, a number of uncompleted projects might be undertaken which would swell next year's total to more than $10,000,000,000. American Telephone and Telegraph is listed as the largest spender. The company stating the Bell system would authorize a total of $700,000,000 for construction throughout the country. It is estimated will spend $250,000,000, the Pennsylvania railroad $200,000,000 and the Federal government not far under $1,000,000,000. The state of Illinois will spend $114,000,000.

Rep. E. E. Denison Furnished Bonds

Washington, Nov. 27.—(AP)—Representative Edward Everett Denison of Illinois, recently indicted on a charge of illegal possession of liquor, appeared today before a clerk in the District of Columbia Supreme Court and posted bail of $500.

John Layne, Denison's former secretary who was jointly indicted with him, has not yet given bail. District Attorney Rover said today he was investigating a report that a mistake in identity had been made in indicting Layne.

Denison was indicted after the discovery of a trunk, which prohibition agents said contained liquor, at a railroad station here. It was addressed to Layne in care of Denison at the house off of building.

Layne after the indictment denied he knew anything about the trunk of liquor and Denison asserted that the trunk had been sent in his care by mistake.

Steam Fitter Dead; Fell Nine Stories

Chicago, Nov. 27.—(UP)—Matty Becmick, steamfitter, fell or jumped nine stories to his death sometime early today in the araway between the City Hall and the County building. He crashed through a skylight and landed between two desks in the county recorder's office where he was found still alive by a watchman. Unable to tell how the fall occurred, Becmick died a short time later in the County hospital.

OTHER DIXON BANKS TO PAY DEPOSITORS

All Depositors in Trust & Savings Bank to Get Money Soon

Within a very few days every depositor in the closed Dixon Trust and Savings Bank will be paid 100 cents on the dollar for all deposits in that bank, thanks to the splendid public spirit of the other two banks in Dixon, the City National Bank and the Dixon National Bank, who announced today that they have jointly taken over the accounts of the Dixon Trust and Savings Bank, closed recently by the state auditor.

The two cooperating banks announce that they guarantee the deposits of the bank that has been closed and that within a few days the depositors will be paid in full. Bookkeeping details necessitate a slight delay—but only a few days. Before a week the banks will be paying off depositors.

F. X. Newcomer of this city has been agreed upon as liquidating agent by the two banking institutions who have come to the rescue of the stranded depositors, and within a few days will open the banking rooms of the Trust and Savings Bank and depositors will be notified by an announcement in The Telegraph that they may come to Mr. Newcomer and be given a check for the full amount of their deposit, whether it be checking account, savings or Christmas savings. These checks will be good only at either one of the other two banks, the Dixon National or the City National. When the depositor takes this check to one of these banks he can have the full amount due him in cash if he prefers, or he may take credit for it and deposit it in either bank as he sees fit. The depositor may choose his own depositor.

The absorption by Dixon's two strong banks of the bank that has been forced to close is a great relief to the individual depositors and to business in general in Dixon and the public feels very grateful to the officers of the two rescuing banks.

Stockholders Raised Fund.
There were also other cooperating forces which made possible the guarantee to the depositors and averted loss to depositors. A certain limited number of officers and stockholders in the Dixon Trust and Savings bank have raised and posted in escrow a large cash fund which is designed to offset, as far as it goes at least, losses which the other two banks may suffer from non-collection of notes which may prove uncollectable. If losses from this source prove to be less than the sum posted, remaining money in this fund will be returned to the men who supplied it.

The cooperation of State Auditor Oscar Nelson and of State Treasurer Omer N. Custer has also been valuable to the settlement of the difficulties of the Dixon bank and are greatly appreciated here. Rep. John Devine has also been actively helpful in the negotiations.

The taking over of the Dixon Trust & Savings Bank by the other banking institutions smooths out financial difficulties of the depositors and also insures them 100 per cent payment and saves them the heavy expenses of a receivership, court costs, lawyers' fees, etc.

Closed November 4th.
The Dixon Trust and Savings bank was closed by State Auditor Nelson on Sunday, November 3, when state bank examiners found that "frozen" assets in the form of notes that could not be quickly liquidated injured the safety of the bank. Subsequent examination proved that there were absolutely no irregularities in the management of the bank or on the part of any of its officials, but, while the bank was in fairly good condition, it was impossible for it to continue business because of the large amount of its funds that were tied up in notes not easily liquidated.

Deposits totaled $304,000. This includes checking, savings and Christmas savings. This sum, which was paid up by the closing of the bank, now becomes available to its various owners by the action of the two strong Dixon banks and those others who cooperated.

State bank examiners R. M. Wylder and P. R. Ernest, both of Princeton, Ill., have completed their work here and departed.

THE RIGHT TO BE THANKFUL.

The Thanksgiving season is a good time for taking stock of one's self.

Each of us doubtless has much to be thankful for. Health, happiness and prosperity have been with most of us. Fortune has been kind—if you believe that Fortune accomplishes these things—but, whatever the reason, most of us are better off today than we were a year ago.

We still have our health, that priceless possession without which no joys are real and with which even misfortune is tempered. There are others, some of whom were strong and robust a short year ago, to whom fate has not been so kind.

We still have our friends—and real friends are among the most precious possessions in the world, for they stand by us at all times, tempering our sorrows in time of adversity and encouraging us on in time of success. The man without friends is poor, indeed.

We still have our happiness—and that, in its many forms, is really what makes life worth while. There are many, perhaps mistaking mere financial success, wealth and position for true happiness, who have gained these but lost their happiness entirely.

We have been prosperous—but we should regard prosperity merely as a means for obtaining happiness, and not as an end; for wealth without happiness is poverty indeed.

Yes, we—certainly the most of us—have reason to be thankful.

But have we the right to be thankful?

The answer can be found if one will only consider himself for a moment. The decision is one's own, and the judge is one's conscience. No other judge is needed.

Have we been as considerate of our health as it has been kind to us? Have we been fair to our minds and our bodies, or have we placed an unnecessary burden upon them by neglect, indifference and perhaps occasional dissipation?

Have we been as true to our friends as they have been to us? Have we comforted and aided them in times of adversity as they have comforted and aided us? Aside from our intimate friends, have we been considerate of society as a whole and opened our hearts (and our purses, too) to those who suffer and are in distress?

Have we confused happiness with those gaudier, tinsel pleasures of life that are so often mistaken for real happiness? Have we realized that true happiness is measured—unconsciously, perhaps, but nevertheless inflexibly—by our return on the good we have done to others?

Have we regarded prosperity merely as a means for enriching ourselves, or as a means for improving ourselves and benefiting others? Have we been selfish with the good fortune that has come upon us—or have we been grateful?

These are the questions that we must answer for ourselves. No one else can answer them for us, no one else needs to. Each man knows the truth that lies buried within his own heart.

If we have done all these things, then we have really earned the right to be thankful.

If we have not earned this right, there is no better time to begin earning it than now.

THE LAW'S DELAYS DIDN'T HELP HIM.

Sometimes our complicated legal machinery, through which a convicted man can petition for a new trial because of minor errors at his first trial, enables a scoundrel to escape punishment. But sometimes it works the other way.

The other day the state of Texas executed a man for murder. This man was arrested some years ago. Brought to trial for murder, he was convicted only of manslaughter and sentenced to four years in prison. He appealed and his lawyer won a new trial for him. This time he was convicted of second degree murder and sentenced to prison for life.

Again he appealed, and again he was granted a new trial. And in the third trial he was convicted of murder in the first degree and sentenced to the electric chair. His further appeals failed, and he finally was electrocuted.

It doesn't work out that way often. But in this case, at least, the chap would have been wise to let well enough alone.

The statistical fact that there are 612 broadcasting stations in this country must be wrong. The man next door has "brought in" twice that many.

China is stricken by war. But the international chess championships are being played in Europe.

There are two kinds of people—human beings and those who give you a dirty look after they pass you on the road.

THE TINYMITES

STORY BY HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES BY BOB

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

The Tinies' sled then slid right in the ship. This made the whole bunch grin. "Gee, we were lucky," Scouty cried. "The thought that frightened me was that we'd leave this little track, sail into the air and go kersmaek upon the tossing water and be ducked within the sea."

"But this big boat just saved us, Gee, I wonder who's ship this can be. We now are in the cold hold and I cannot see a thing. Our sled'd all right. We'll keep it near. Perhaps we'll want to skip from here. Somebody yell hello and we will see who that will bring."

The bunch began to look around but not a thing but coal was found. Said Clowny, "I'm not sure that it is wise for us to shout. 'Twould be much better if we'd wait until we all investigate this ship a bit and thus find out what it is all about."

"A stairway must be right nearby. I'll lead the way and gladly try to climb right up it, cautiously, until I reach the deck. The next thing, then for us to do, if we find men, is join the crew. There may be no one up on board. This boat may be a wreck."

They looked until the stairs was found and up it they were shortly bound. All of a sudden Coppy said, "I hear some men above. A sliding door is in our way. Shall we go up or shall we stay right here?" "Go up," another cried. "Just give the door a shove."

So, up on deck the whole bunch ran, and almost bumped into a man. "What ho!" he shouted. "Mercy me! Please tell me, who are you?" Before the Tinymites could say, some other men came right their way. The Tinies soon discovered 'twas the captain and the crew.

MRS. HOLDRIDGE IS MOURNED BY MANY IN HOME OF BIRTH

Was an Active Worker in Civic and Political Affairs in Sterling

The Sterling Gazette publishes the following article concerning the death of Mrs. E. E. Holdridge:

The entire community is profoundly shocked by the sad intelligence of the death of Mrs. E. E. Holdridge Sunday morning at 3:50 o'clock in the Dixon hospital, following a brief illness of 10 days. No premonition of such a loss preceded the news of her death in this city, where she lived practically her entire life.

Mrs. Holdridge was taken to the Dixon hospital five days ago, in order to be near her husband, who has been city editor of The Dixon Telegraph for many years. It was not thought that her condition was critical until after she had been in the hospital several days.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon, a brief service at the family home, 608 Locust street, at 2 o'clock and services in the Congregational church, of which she and her husband have been members since childhood were held at 2:30 o'clock, in charge of the pastor, Rev. Paul E. Nelson. Interment was in the family lot in Riverside cemetery.

Mrs. Holdridge's maiden name was Myrtle Grace Brown, and she was born in Sterling Sept. 30, 1884. Her parents were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Brown, pioneers of this city. She was graduated from the Sterling township high school with the class of 1902.

On Oct. 12, 1904, she was united in marriage to Earl E. Holdridge, whom she had known since childhood and who was then on the news staff of The Sterling Daily Standard. For a year or two, after Mr. Holdridge accepted an editorial position with The Dixon Telegraph, they lived in Dixon, but later decided to return to their home here, Mr. Holdridge driving to his work in Dixon every morning and returning at night.

Had Wide Acquaintance
During the years Mr. Holdridge was leader of the Sterling band and their daughter was a member of the Sterling zouaves, Mrs. Holdridge was active in the auxiliary work of both organizations. In recent years, as secretary of the Sterling-Rock Falls Household Science club, and as a worker in the Congregational church, she continued her activities and kept in touch with multitudes of friends.

Her acquaintance was still further extended by the interest she took in political affairs, stimulated by a patriotic spirit of service. She was one of the very first women to serve on an election board and continued to serve at elections held in the city hall from that time on. As republican committeewoman from the fifth precinct, her position as a valued part of the political organization of the community was given merited recognition.

A gifted and attractive personality accentuated the popularity of this zealous worker in many worthy causes and increased the demands for her services. But she neglected none of the home duties, her enjoyment of which was indicated by her domestic science studies. The varied demands made upon her energies led her to overtax her strength in unselfish devotion to others, resulting in the breakdown of health that brought to so untimely an end her highly useful career.

Mrs. Holdridge is survived by her husband, her daughter, Miss Alda Holdridge, her mother, Mrs. Katherine Brown, and one brother, Claude A. Brown, all of this city. She was preceded in death by her father and by an infant son, Morris, who died in 1907. Beside the family the entire community mourns her passing, and the deepest sympathy of all goes out to the husband, daughter, mother and brother, who are now in the shadow of a great and unexpected sorrow.

Oak Floors over Old Floors

At this time of the year many old homes are being made more attractive and more comfortable by laying oak floors right over the old floors. It is done quickly, without the mess and inconvenience of ripping up the old boards, and at comparatively small expense. When finished, the new oak floors are not only beautiful in themselves, but give the entire home a new and well-dressed appearance and an added value which is far greater than the cost of the flooring. We recommend Long-Bell trade-marked oak flooring for this purpose. It answers every requirement of texture, manufacture, finish, durability and satisfaction. Let us show you in actual figures the economy of Long-Bell oak flooring.

But the Queen Preferred String Pearls Instead of Diamonds

BY ADELAIDE KERR
Associated Press Staff Writer.

New York, Nov. 27.—(AP)—On the crest of a blue velvet cushion encased in the steel of a Fifth Avenue bank vault today lies a 300 carat diamond necklace that has traveled through Egypt and America in brown paper parcels since the day it graced the throat of Napoleon's Empress.

More than a hundred years ago Napoleon I gave the jewels to his young wife, Marie Louise, in his joy over the birth of their son, whom he dreamed would carry on the Napoleon "dynasty."

Since then it has graced the throats of an Austrian Empress and Archduchess, has traveled the sands of Egypt and the subways of New York, has been the awe of customs officials and the wonder of bank clerks.

Today it is in the care of Mrs. Charles F. Townsend, who was born the Princess Barone, daughter of the Italian Prince Barone, and who is a friend of the Arch-Duchess of Austria, Marie Therese, its 74-year-old owner.

A little more than a year ago Mrs. Townsend, the wife of a retired English government official formerly serving in Egypt, carried the jewels to King Fuad who considered buying them for his Queen. But the Queen preferred a rope of pearls, so the diamonds were not purchased.

The necklace, set in silver and gold, has 47 diamonds, the larger ones fifteen carats. Around its circular design hang ten briolettes and nine pendants.

Annual T. B. Sale To Start Friday

Once again the holidays are approaching and the season of festivity makes itself apparent in many ways. At this time of rejoicing kindly hearts seek to give pleasure to those who are ill and who may be made stronger and well with the proper nourishment. Such a wonderful relief and strength is added to many a poorly nourished body with the addition of pure, rich milk to the diet. And the annual Tuberculosis Seal Sale promotes this health and strength in the sale of the seals. The seals are being mailed out in sheets as usual, and everyone is urged to buy many sheets if possible, and if not, one sheet.

1929 Babies Have Old Fashioned Names

It is said that we are as old as we look. It is equally true that we are as old as we are called—that is, if parents follow fashions in names and bestow the favorite of the year on their infants. It had been observed that smart people, so far from finding fantastic Christian names to suit a world of pagan pleasures, are now returning to titles which have an air of being laid up in lavender.

The 1929 vintage of Mayfair babies will have, for instance, on its feminine side a large number of Sarahs and Sophias and Virginias. Girl's names seem to carry a period label more plainly than those of boys, and it is possible to trace the vogue down the years and assess the ages of Dorothy, Gladys, Joan and Pamela. Now it seems that the Dianas and Pamelas are all at school, and that the nurseries are full of Marys and Anns, with Sarah and Sophy just learning to walk.

It is said that Victorian favorites are now going to be the top-price features in the "first edition" market, and that a hearty appetite for Victorian furniture is likely to replace the present passion for Queen Anne and walnut, which in turn drove oak from the place of privilege. Accordingly, it is only stable that a mother who has just been purchasing candelabra and wax fruits on a generous scale should have a Miss Sophia in readiness to sit beneath and among them.

Whether she will persuade Miss Sophia to adopt Victorian virtues is another matter. But, at any rate, she is creating the right atmosphere in word as well as in wax—Manchester Guardian.

"KONJOLA WORTH ITS WEIGHT IN GOLD TO ME!"

Lady Spent $4,000 Seeking Relief That Four Bottles of New Medicine Gave.

MRS. H. J. BROWN.

"For fifteen years I suffered from stomach and kidney troubles and nervousness," said Mrs. H. J. Brown, 4132 North Irving avenue, Chicago, Ill. "In that time I spent at least $4,000 seeking relief. After eating anything I bloated so that it seemed as though I would burst. My stomach was so sore that I could not touch it. I had constant headaches, was unable to sleep and was about to give up.

"Then to my joy, I started on Konjola, the medicine that proved itself worth more than its weight in gold. Four bottles of this marvelous medicine restored my health. Today I can eat anything I want without suffering afterward. My nerves are calm and I am sleeping all night through. What a medicine Konjola is. The world should know of it."

Konjola is sold in Dixon, Ill., at FORD HOPKINS DRUG STORE, 123 First St., and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.—Adv.

Sullivan, Mrs. David James, Mrs. Charles Hanson and Mrs. Frank Tyne.

A neat sum was realized from door receipts both nights and the money is to be utilized in the Altar and Rosary Society work.

Bridge Playing Scored by Professor

Boston, Nov. 26.—(AP)—Professor Robert Emmons Rogers of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, who told a graduating class that they should be snobbish if they wanted to succeed, feels that playing bridge is the "lowest depth to which a human being can fall."

He so told 800 women and little more than a dozen men who heard him lecture on "Recent Books" at the Gardner auditorium in the state house last night. His remarks on bridge playing were a digression and brought a laugh from his audience.

Rogers, who is a professor of English, declared in praising recent literary works by British authors, that "English writers live near the earth while most of America's literary contributions are born in apartment houses."

Fruit Cakes, Like Old Friends, Improve With Age, Bake Now

Since fruit cakes, like old friends and rare wines, improve with age, it behooves the wise kitchen-ruler to get out the mixing bowls and spoons, to assemble the spices, the raisins, the dates and bake the holiday fruit cake now!

There are fruit cakes, and—ah, fruit cakes!—and the weight of your emphasis depends upon your own particular traditions. There is the dark and opulent cake of our early American colonies, taken from the old English recipe; there is the golden be-nutted favorite of the moderns; the thrifty brown beauty of home-bureau fame; the eggless cake of war-time holidays; the love of the South-Tennessee fruit cake.

All of them, though mellow with tradition, and reminiscent of the kitchens of old, may be made with ease, for the old-time recipes have been modernized, made explicit enough for the most inexperienced cook, and the time-consuming process of preparing the fruit peels has fallen before the practices of the machine age. Now the peels of lemon, orange and citron may be bought in fourth-pound packages, thin-sliced and candied, ready for use.

If the purse must be consulted, note the cost-per-pound estimate appended to some of the tested recipes below, and discover that every family may have its traditional fruit cake.

OLD ENGLISH FRUIT CAKE

(6 pounds)
1 lb. seeded raisins
1 lb. currants
2 pkgs. (½ lb.) sliced, candied citron
1 pkg. (¼ lb.) sliced, candied lemon peel
1 pkg. (¼ lb.) orange peel
1 pkg. (10 oz.) dates, pitted
½ cup candied cherries or candied pineapple
2 cups (½ lb.) flour
1½ teaspoonfuls cinnamon
½ teaspoonful mace
1 teaspoon nutmeg
1 teaspoon allspice
¾ teaspoon salt
1 cup (½ lb.) butter or butter substitute
1 cup (½ lb.) sugar
6 eggs
Juice of 1 lemon
¼ cup orange juice
¼ cup grape juice
¼ lb. almond meats
2 ozs. candied or Maraschino cherries.

Wash raisins and currants. Drain well. Put raisins through the food chopper (using coarse knife) or chop them in a wooden bowl. Pit dates or use ready-pitted variety, and cut them with scissors into five or six wise slices. Place the dried fruit in a bowl, add sliced fruit peel and candied fruit. Mix flour, salt and spices and sift these dry ingredients over the fruit mixture, mixing the fruit through the flour with finger tips.

Cream shortening in a large mixing bowl; add sugar gradually, then the beaten eggs. Stir in the fruit and flour mixture alternately with the batter in pans which have been fruit juices. Mix thoroughly. Place well-greased and lined with greased paper. This recipe yields six pounds of cake, weighed after baking. This cake, which may be baked in one large cake pan or in three or six small loaf pans, may be either baked in a slow oven (275 F.) for three hours, or steamed for three and one-half hours, then dried in a slow oven for one hour.

(Estimated cost per pound of this cake is forty cents; if baked for selling, is usually retailed at one dollar the pound.)

GOLDEN FRUIT CAKE

(3 pounds)
1 cup (5 oz.) seeded white raisins (or ordinary raisins)
1 pkg. (¼ lb.) sliced, candied citron
1 pkg. (¼ lb.) sliced, candied orange peel
1 pkg. (¼ lb.) sliced, candied lemon peel
1 pkg. (¼ lb.) sliced, candied grapefruit peel
1 pkg. (¼ lb.) shredded coconut
1 cup blanched almond meats
2 cups (½ lb.) bread flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt
½ cup butter or butter substitute
1 cup sugar
3 eggs
¼ cup orange juice or water
1 teaspoon orange or lemon extract

Wash raisins and drain well. Place raisins, candied peel, coconut and coarsely chopped nut meats in a bowl. Sift the flour, baking powder and salt over the fruit; mix fruit through the flour with the finger tips. Cream butter, add sugar gradually, then the beaten eggs. Add the flavoring. Stir in the fruit and flour mixture alternately with the water.

Pour the mixture into one large or two or three small loaf tins, which have been greased and lined with greased paper. Bake the loaves in a slow oven (300 F.) for two and one-half hours, according to size. (Estimated cost per pound of this cake is fifty cents; selling price is usually one dollar per pound.)

THRIFTY HOME-BUREAU CAKE

(4 pounds)
1 pkg. (1 lb.) raisins
1 pkg. (10 oz.) dates
¼ lb. layer figs
1 pkg. (¼ lb.) sliced citron
1 pkg. (¼ lb.) sliced orange peel
1 pkg. (¼ lb.) sliced lemon peel
2½ cups flour
1 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon allspice
½ teaspoon mace or nutmeg
½ teaspoon cloves
½ cup butter or butter substitute
1 cup brown sugar
3 eggs
¼ cup molasses
¼ cup coffee

Wash and drain raisins. Pit dates or use ready-pitted variety, and cut into pieces with wet scissors. Wash figs, drain, chop coarsely. Place the fruit in a bowl, add sliced citron and fruit peel. Sift flour, salt, spices and soda over fruit and mix with the finger tips. Cream the fat; stir in the sugar gradually, then the eggs. Add the flour an fruit alternately with the molasses and coffee. Pour the batter into a large paper-lined loaf pan and bake in a slow oven (275 F.) for three hours. This recipe makes a four pound cake.

(Estimated cost per pound of this cake is thirty cents; average selling price is seventy cents the pound.)

WAR-TIME EGGLESS CAKE

(2½ pounds)
2 cups brown sugar
2 cups water or coffee
2 cups fat
1 cup seedless raisins
3 cups flour
1 pkg. (¼ lb.) sliced orange peel
4 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon mace or nutmeg
1 teaspoon salt
1 pkg. (¼ lb.) sliced citron

Place brown sugar, water (or coffee) fat and raisins in a saucepan. Stir over the flame until sugar is dissolved. Boil gently for five minutes. Cool. Sift flour, baking powder, spices and salt. Add sliced citron and orange peel, mixing fruit through the flour with the finger tips. Pour the batter into a paper-lined loaf pan. Bake in a very moderate oven (325 F.) for one and one-half to two hours.

This recipe makes one large cake (2½ pounds) and is quite inexpensive. It does not have the extensive keeping qualities of the other cakes, but may be kept for several weeks.

TENNESSEE MAMMY'S FRUIT CAKE

(7 pounds)
½ lb. currants
1 lb. raisins
1 lb. dates (2 pkgs.)
½ lb. candied pineapple
½ lb. candied cherries

TO RUSH WORK ON PENITENTIARIES

Director Brandon Assures Relief of Congestion in Penal Places

Chicago, Nov. 27.—(AP)—By a ruling of the Board of Pardons and Paroles announced yesterday, Illinois prison inmates convicted of robbery with a gun must serve a minimum of four years before they are eligible to parol.

W. C. Jones, chairman of the pardon board, in explaining the ruling said it was the decision of the members to make the punishment twice as severe as the average in other states. A survey of 100 penal institutions, he said, showed an average of a traffic more than three years, less time off for good behavior.

With this in mind, the pardon board fixed the time to be served in Illinois at 6 to 13 years. With the allowances for good behavior, the resultant terms for armed robbery convicts is a minimum of four years to eight years and eight months.

One effect seen by the board of this more rigorous code is the immediate need of additional prison capacity. Following the board meeting Rodney Brandon, director of public welfare, announced the state would rush completion of the $1,300,000 expenditure for additional cells. He said the contract had already been awarded for 460 new cells in the Pontiac reformatory and that awards would be made within the next few days for more cells in the Joliet and Menard prisons.

Radio Fan Sues Power Company

Elkader, Iowa.—(UP)—Whether public utility companies may interfere with a taxpayer's enjoyment of his radio through operation of a high voltage line near his home will be decided, at least temporarily, at the December term of district court here.

The issue arose in a suit filed by Judge W. L. Eichendorf, McGregor, asking damages for deprivation of the use of his radio for the last two years. The suit charges the Inter-state Power Company with interference with "peaceable enjoyment of a radio in his home," and is accompanied by a petition for a permanent injunction against operation of the company's high voltage lines through McGregor.

DEATH DECATUR H. S. STUDENT IS MYSTERY

X-ray Exam. Discloses Bullet at Base Brain Mates Questioned

Decatur, Ill., Nov. 27.—(UP)—Mute evidence—a home-made-black-jack and a glass cutter—was all that police had today to aid them in solving the mysterious death of Evert Barker, 15, junior high school pupil found dying with a bullet in his head in the business district here early yesterday morning.

Hours of grilling of school-mates of the dead youth failed to glean any information which would aid authorities in apprehending the youth's assailant.

Numerous bruises about the lad's face, and body led police to the opinion that he had been beaten before shot. The home-made black-jack and a glass cutter were found beside the dying boy.

Several X-ray pictures taken at the hospital, failed to locate any bullet in the head, but late yesterday a .32 calibre slug was located at the base of the lad's brain.

Young Barker was last seen alive by his father at their home. He was reading at the time, his father said, and complained of not being able to sleep, stating that he was nervous.

The body was discovered by a carrier boy, and it remained unidentified for several hours in a morgue here.

GRIDIRON NEWS

BY WILLIAM J. CHIPMAN

(Associated Press Sports Writer)
New York, Nov. 27.—(AP)—With football interest in the east has been diverted momentarily from the interesting engagements with which the season in this sector will be brought to a close on Saturday. The annual battle between Notre Dame and the Army will furnish the big climax of the campaign at the Yankee Stadium on Saturday, but the burning question at this moment is whether a fine Cornell eleven really can halt Pennsylvania's tricky offense tomorrow.

Syracuse and Columbia have their ninth annual tilt in New York tomorrow. Syracuse is heavily favored.

Another invader of the metropolis, Carnegie Tech, is favored to wage a successful battle. It is seeking revenge against New York university of three successive beatings.

Undeclared by an eastern eleven, Colgate plays Brown at Providence. Pittsburgh is in a position to turn on all its power against Penn State in the annual game at Pittsburgh tomorrow when both teams will finish the campaign. Victory would seal Pittsburgh's claim to the eastern championship and to share in the national award.

Washington, and Jefferson is favored over West Virginia in the annual battle of Morgantown, which dates back to 1891 and which is the oldest of all the Thanksgiving day fixtures. It has been played with

THANKSGIVING—And the Last Touchdown

BY W. M. BRAUCHER

THANKSGIVING is here and the last touchdown soon will be made. Under the goal posts fighting youth has matched brawn and brains in the fierce struggle to score. Now the posts will be taken down. Or left to stand guard alone, with white snow drifting where once throbbing life and brilliant color ebbed and surged in the battle for the goal.

The touchdown harvest is nearly done. And many of the men who fought as players in the athletic spectacle that the harvest provided have kicked their last football, crashed the line for the last time, flung the last long forward pass. For them this touchdown harvest is final. Al Marsters, who plunged and darted and dodged for Dartmouth, made his last touchdown before the harvest was complete. A broken bone in his back took away from the game one of its greatest halfbacks while there still were battles to be fought.

Chris Cagle, whose name went across the country before the touchdown battle had fairly begun, will run for the Army no more. From the first to the last he has been a marked man. "Get Cagle," was the cry in every game, and that alone stands as a great tribute to his prowess.

Roy Riegels—the goal posts saw him err fatally once. But how he did fight back after that mistake! He ran the wrong way, but corrected it in the best way a man can—to grin and bear it and fight 'em back.

The goal posts this season will be hearing for the last time the thud as Benny Lom's right foot swishes into that ball to send it soaring far down the field. The Trojan will not forget his slashing run down the field for the touchdown that spelled defeat.

Captain John Law, the tackle who led one of the greatest football machines ever put together at Notre Dame, is saying farewell this year. Bronko Nagurski, bucking horse of the Minnesota herd, and Pest Welch and Glen Harneson, who helped bring Purdue its first championship—this touchdown is their last, too. Calderwood, who grabbed the fumble that beat Minnesota out of a Big Ten title, also is through.

Billy Banker, the Blond Blizzard of Tulane, will bid goodbye to the Southern Conference with a full harvest done. Stumpy Thomason, Warner Mizell, Russ Saunders, Pug Parkinson, Ray Montgomery, Eddie Wittmer, "Little Sleepy" Glenn, Jap Douds, Joe Donchess—the day for their last touchdowns is at hand.

Next year the goal posts will look down again on the familiar old battle. The faces will be different, here and there. For these men, though, Thanksgiving harvest means that their touchdown harvest is nearly done.

few interruptions since its start, W. and J. holding an edge of eighteen victories to seven, with two games tied.

In addition to the Army-Notre Dame clash at the Yankee Stadium Saturday's card is featured by meetings between Dartmouth and the Navy at Philadelphia, Holy Cross and Boston College at Boston and Temple and Villanova at Philadelphia. All of these games will be hard-fought, with little edge admitted either way in any of them. Dartmouth and Villanova enjoy whatever margin may exist in their clashes.

He was recently elected into membership of Pi Phi Rho Literary Society which was organized last year in connection with the Centennial of the founding of the institution. Inasmuch as fraternities are prohibited at Illinois college, the literary societies play an important role in the campus life of the student. Ransom during the short time that he has been in the campus, has indicated that he is earnest and sincere, and his friends are sure that his college career will be very successful.

Canvas Plan to Save Iowa in Big Ten

Iowa City, Nov. 27.—(AP)—The University of Iowa's final maneuvers to gain athletic reinstatement in the western conference before the new year were gone over last night in along session of the Iowa board in control of athletics, but no statement as to what the plans were was made.

The numerous shake-ups of the athletic department which have marked Iowa's house cleaning since the Big Ten ouster proceedings last May gave rise to an apparently reliable report that George T. Bresnahan was the next sacrifice to the Hawkeye cause. But the report that he would resign as director of intercollegiate athletics brought a denial from Bresnahan, who is also head track coach. He stated that he never had officially accepted the position so he could not resign from it.

Bresnahan was one of the central targets for the charges of recruiting athletics which followed the ouster last spring.

The track coach's denial was the only definite statement affecting the athletics situation, every member of the board in control of athletics refusing to give any hint as to the course they will follow at the conference faculty meeting at Chicago December 6 and 7.

Chicago, Nov. 27.—(AP)—Bicycle riding is a serious avocation to Melvin Simes.
This week, he steered his trusty bike home, wiped the perspiration from his brow and announced to friends he had pedaled 50,000 miles in seven years and was going to retire.

"Why, I once read of a fellow who pedaled 75,000 miles," one of his friends piped up. "You just an amateur."

"You did? Well I'll beat that mark," Melvin challenged. "I'll pedal 50,000 more just to prove I'm no pikar."

Melvin will start out next Saturday pedaling toward Florida as a starter.

Football Coaches Seeking Big Games

Chicago, Nov. 27.—(AP)—With Iowa's readmission to the conference doubtful, Big Ten football coaches and athletic directors today were angling for attractive home inter-sectional games for their 1930 schedule.

Dick Hanley of Northwestern was in the east, seeking a home game with either Columbia or the Navy; Minnesota was reported after a game at Minneapolis with one of the stronger teams in the Pacific coast conference, while other Big Ten members were known to be sounders out strong teams in the east, south and west.

Shorter Season For American Ass'n.

Chicago, Nov. 27.—(AP)—Falling in line with other baseball circuits, the American Association has trimmed its playing schedule for 1930.
The season will open April 15 and close on Sept. 21 for a schedule of 154 games. Last season, it opened April 16 and ended Sept. 28 for a 168 game schedule.

Western clubs will open in the east—Minneapolis at Toledo, St. Paul at Columbus, Milwaukee at Indianapolis and Kansas City at Louisville.
Thomas J. Hickey, president of the league, said he believed a shorter season would be beneficial to the league.

Illinois Gridders Vote "No Captain"

Champaign, Ill., Nov. 27.—(AP)—University of Illinois football regulars have voted against a football captain for 1930.

In "Chicago's Snyder-Gray Case"

"I'm sorry I ever looked at a man," sobbed Mrs. Genevieve O'Brien of Chicago, charged with conspiring with Samuel H. Dorr to murder her husband. Mrs. O'Brien, almost hysterical, was being comforted by a police matron. Dorr, who claims he killed O'Brien in self-defense, is shown in the inset below giving his testimony. The coroner's jury ordered the two held without bond. Because of the similarity, this case has been likened to the famous Snyder-Gray murder case in New York.

SAY NIGHT RIDERS BURNED MAN ALIVE ATTACKING HIS GIRL

Reign of Terror Seals Lips of Witnesses Regarding Gang Crimes

Mountain View, Ark., Nov. 27.—(AP)—Sheriff Sam Johnson, of Stone county, declared today that a "reign of terror" had been created in the St. James community in order to seal the lips of citizens regarding a series of crimes by a band of night riders that culminated in the torturing and burning alive of a young farm laborer.

"Everyone who knew anything about the slaying of Connie Franklin and an attack on his sweetheart was terrorized by a band of men who threatened any one who gave information to us," he said.

"But for a not thrown outside the jail by Ross Younger, a brother of Bill C. Younger, one of the men under indictment, we might never have uncovered information about the slaying," the sheriff added.

"In his note Younger said he knew all about the slaying and unless his brothers and other he implicated to it obtained his release on bail on the night riding charge against him, he would tell all he knew."

Bill Younger, the father of five children, and four others are in jail charged with first degree murder and four others are being sought. Two of the men held also face statutory charges.

Four other men are sought also on first degree murder charges for the Franklin slaying, Sheriff Johnson said.

The girl's account of the torturing mutilation and then burning alive of her sweetheart was substantiated by a written statement of a deaf boy.

Both were quoted by Sheriff Johnson as saying a band of men accosted the girl and Franklin on a lonely mountain road the night of last March 10. Franklin was beaten and then tortured, she said, and after he fainted from the pain the men thinking him dead, built a fire of logs and placed his body on it.

The father of the girl was severely whipped by night riders the night before the slaying, Sheriff Johnson said. He said, however, he had been unable to connect this whipping with the men who he charges slew Franklin.
